The duration for which we retain your personal information will differ depending on the type of information and the reason why we collected it from you. Generally, where there is no legal requirement we retain all physical and electronic records for a period of approximately 6 years following the end of our customer relationship with you or the organisation you work for, because this is the limitation period for claims related to breach of contract. The exceptions to this general rule are:

- For Google Analytics it will generally be a period of approximately 38 months after you used our website.

For example, we do not use automated decision making in relation to your personal data. However, some have no conditions attached, so your right to withdraw consent or object to processing for direct marketing are absolute rights.
